

Spring 2024 City of Naperville Parkway Tree Selection

MIYABE MAPLE – Acer miyabei

Size: 40' tall by 25' wide.

Growth Rate: Fast

Leaf Color: Dark green turning yellow in fall.

Notes: Oval to round shape, corky bark, native to Japan. Pest resistant and urban tolerant.

JAPANESE TREE LILAC - Syringa reticulata

Size: 25' tall by 15' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Dark green in summer turning yellow/brown in fall

Notes: Small ornamental tree native to Japan, white flowers in summer. Attractive reddish-brown bark.

HONEYLOCUST - Gleditsia triacanthos var. inermis

Size: 50' tall by 40' wide.

Growth Rate: Fast

Leaf Color: Bright green in summer turning yellow in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, Shade is not dense, consequently grass is able grow under the tree.

KENTUCKY COFFEE TREE – Gymnocladus dioicus

Size: 65' tall x 50' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Dark bluish green in summer and yellow in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, very few disease or insect problems, tolerates tough urban conditions.

BALD CYPRESS – Taxodium distichum

Size: 60' tall x 25' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Green featherlike leaves turn russet brown to orange brown in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, adaptable to wet or dry conditions and urban conditions.

HACKBERRY- Celtis occidentalis

Size: 60' tall x 40' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Green leaves turn yellow in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, unique warty bark, adaptable to tough urban conditions.

HYBRID ELM - Ulmus species

Size: 70' tall by 50' wide.

Growth Rate: Fast

Leaf Color: Dark green in summer turning yellow in fall.

Notes: Tolerant of urban conditions, including poor soils, salt and pollution.

TULIPTREE – Liriodendron tulipifera

Size: 70' tall x 35' wide.

Growth Rate: Fast

Leaf Color: Bright green turning yellow in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, unique green tulip shaped flowers in spring.

CATALPA – Catalpa speciosa

Size: 55' tall x 30' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium to fast.

Leaf Color: Large heart shaped bright green leaves turn yellow green to brown in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, beautiful white flowers in late spring, long thin cigar shaped seed pods.

ZELKOVA – Zelkova serrata

Size: 45' tall x 15' wide.

Growth Rate: Fast

Leaf Color: Green leaves turn yellow-red to rusty red in fall.

Notes: Native to Japan, 'Musashino' is the cultivar, tall and narrow good for tight spaces.

SILVER LINDEN – Tilia tomentosa

Size: 50' tall by 30' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Dark green upper surface with silver color beneath, turning yellow in fall.

Notes: One of the best lawn and street trees, tolerates heat and drought.

BUR OAK – Quercus macrocarpa

Size: 80' tall by 60' wide.

Growth Rate: Slow at first then medium

Leaf Color: Green leaves turn yellow to brown in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, long lived large shade tree.

RED OAK – Quercus rubra

Size: 60' tall by 60' wide.

Growth Rate: Fast

Leaf Color: Green leaves turn red to brown in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, long lived large shade tree.

SWAMP WHITE OAK – Quercus bicolor

Size: 60' tall by 60' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Dark glossy leaves turn yellow to brown in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois, tolerates urban conditions well.

CHINKAPIN OAK – Quercus muhlenbergii

Size: 55' tall by 50' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Dark yellowish green leaves turn yellow to orange-brown in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois.

CRABAPPLE – Malus species

Size: 20' tall by 20' wide, but varies widely cultivar

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Most have green leaves, some cultivars have purple leaves.

Notes: Beautiful flowers in the spring in many different colors depending on cultivar.

SUGAR MAPLE – Acer saccharum

Size: 60' tall by 40' wide.

Growth Rate: Slow to Medium

Leaf Color: Green leaves turn yellow to orange in fall.

Notes: Native to Illinois.

SERVICEBERRY – Amelanchier species

Size: 20' tall by 15' wide.

Growth Rate: Medium

Leaf Color: Green leaves turn orange red in fall.

Notes: Small white flowers in spring, has small fruits that attract wildlife, native to Illinois.

HOPHORNBEAM – Ostrya virginiana

Size: 30' tall by 20' wide.

Growth Rate: Slow

Leaf Color: Dark green leaves turn yellow in fall.

Notes: Small fruits resembling hops in spring, native to Illinois.