

Embracing Community: Connecting Neighbors

Connecting Across the Generations: Continuing the Conversation

As spring invites growth and renewal, it also creates space to deepen connection and strengthen community. Join the City of Naperville and students from North Central College for Connecting Across the Generations: Continuing the Conversation, part of our Embracing Community: Connecting Neighbors series.

This event brings seniors and college students together to continue the conversation, share experiences, and foster meaningful connections.

Be part of the ongoing conversation that bridges generations and brings our community closer together. All are welcome. Advance registration is required for event participation.

Saturday, April 25
